Penobscot Historical Society

88 N. Penobscot Rd, Penobscot, ME 04476

Please join us on Monday September 15, 2025
as the Penobscot Historical Society presents

The Historic Cemeteries of Penobscot
(Hancock County, Maine)

Join us as PHS Archivist and Member, Jon Albrecht, reviews a map of the many Penobscot cemeteries and discusses some of the more interesting memorials found within our small rural community.

With 73 cemeteries (71 of which are private ancient burial grounds) within 46.5 square miles, Penobscot has a rich burial history spanning almost two and a half centuries.

This event is open to the public and will be held at the Penobscot United Methodist Church. Free admission (donations accepted). Light refreshments will be provided. Bathroom onsite. Accessible ramp on left side of building but no accessible parking (drop off only). Onsite parking is limited.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the Penobscot Historical Society, please bring a $10 cash/check membership fee to the meeting and speak to one of the PHS Officers before or after the event.
